

Jacob's reading diary

Land of Roar

- I like Win Ninja because he is funny and a cross between a wizard and a Ninja.
- I recommend the book because it is fun and adventurous.
- The land is really cool and exciting and there's lots of things you wouldn't imagine

*I see a cluster of jelly-shaped islands, a castle rising out of the sea, and three dragons
soaring through the sky.
And written along the top of the map in my spiky
handwriting is one word:*

ROAR

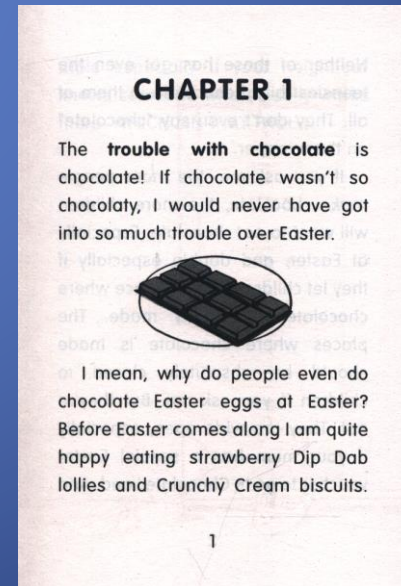

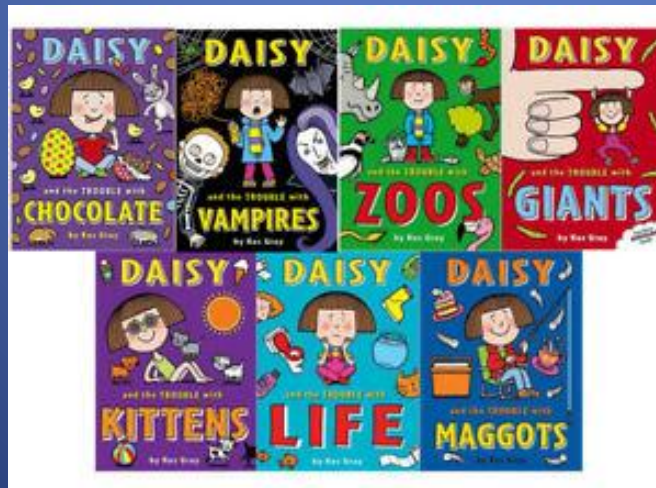

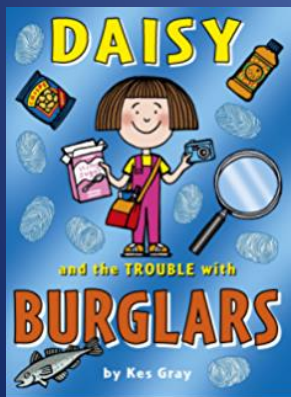

The 13/26/39/52/65/78/91/104/117- Storey Treehouse series

- It is my favourite series and it inspired me to love reading.
- It's hilarious
- It's adventurous
- My favourite person is Andy because he narrates the whole story.
- Very imaginative
- My favourite invention is the marshmallow shooter!

Daisy and the Trouble with...

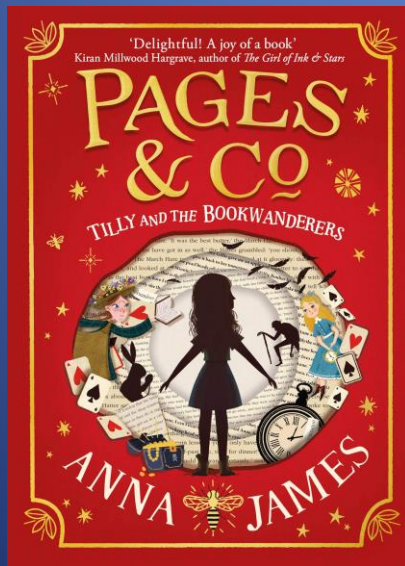

- I think it's really funny
- In Daisy and the Trouble with Chocolate I like the cute guinea pigs.
- In Daisy and the Trouble with Zoos I like the bit where Mum found out Daisy had taken a penguin home from the zoo!

PAGES and Co

- I like it how they go book wandering which is when they travel into books!
- I think this book is good because if you like it, there is another one in the series.
- It is adventurous and funny at the same time!

First book

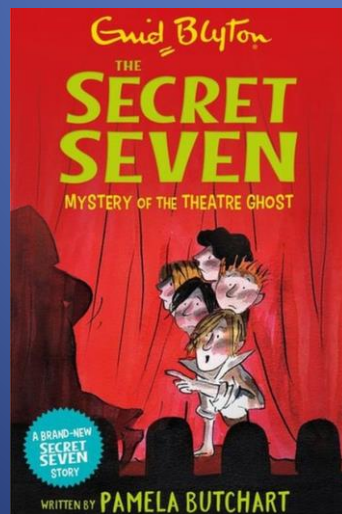

Second book

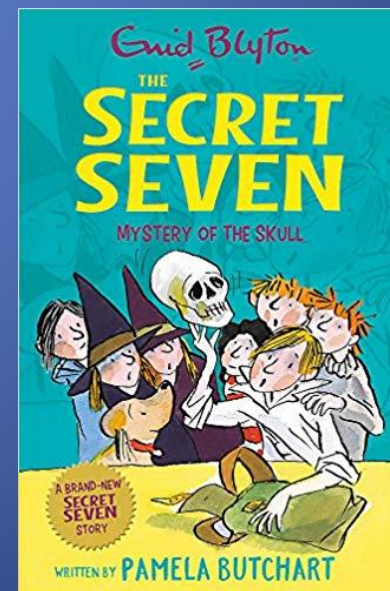

The NEW Secret Seven Mysteries

- I really recommend these if you are into mystery books and like solving puzzles
- I got through one of the books in ONE DAY because it was so exciting!
- They leave each chapter on a cliffhanger to make you keep reading.

2nd book

1st book

The Mr Gum Series

- They are really funny!
- I like them because they are silly – the characters do funny things.
- I went to see Andy Stanton in Bath and he is my second favourite author.
