

READING LETTER: AUTUMN 2019

Author Spotlight: Kieran Larwood

Kieran Larwood is the successful author of The Five Realms series (The Legend of Podkin One-Ear, The Gift of Dark Hollow, The Beasts of Grimheart and Uki and the Outcasts) and The Peculiars. Like a lot of authors we know and love, he started out as a class teacher and taught Reception for 15 years.

Inspired by the setting around him (he lives on the Isle of Wight), Kieran found himself drawing lots of rabbits, but insisted of being cute and fluffy, they were always dressed and armed ready for battle. His illustrations took him on to the idea of writing a story about life underground in warrens where rabbits work and play until one day their peace is disturbed by The Gorm. Podkin and his family have to flee the rampaging Gorm and find a place to hide until they can figure out how to defeat what seems an unstoppable enemy.

The adventures in each book are beautifully illustrated by David Wyatt.

'A must read!' for KS2 pupils according to Miss Tonner.

Poetry

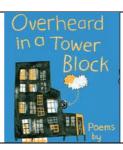

Earlier in the term, a group of KS2 pupils had the chance to see the inspiring poet, Joseph Coelho. He performed some of his classic poems as well as giving us a few tricks to write poems. Joseph had quite a few interesting careers (gym instructor, salesman and film extra!) before he found his love of performance poetry. Click on the link below to find out more about how he writes his poems and see a few videos of him performing his fantastic poems like Werewolf Club Rules, M.O.R.E.R.A.P.S, Miss Flotsam and Overheard in a Tower Block.

Rec/Year 1 Aqua Midnight Teal The Silly Goat Gruff RABBIT RABBIT

An interview with Miss Tonner
What book would you recommend from your childhood?	So many to choose from, but if I had to just choose one, it would be Boy by Roald Dahl. I remember my Y3/4 teacher giving me a copy to read after I had read quite a few of his stories. Up until then, I never realised that you could write a book about yourself for other people to read. The book takes you back to his early childhood – his experiences in school, summer holidays in Norway and adventures in Wales. I still have my copy that my teacher gave me sitting on my bookshelf at home!
What is your favourite children's book that's been released in the past few years?	Where do I start? I have 2 that I always recommend to anyone who is looking for something new. First would be The Legend of Podkin One-Ear by Kieran Larwood. I cannot say enough good things about this series. The twists and turns the first book takes are brilliant. I love the dual story of Podkin and his battle and then the Bard and his journey. My other favourite is The Wolf Wilder by Katherine Rundell. Reading the opening lines, I knew that this was going to be a special book. Rundell has a way of making you relate to her characters that I haven't come across in many other books (both children and adult).
What are you currently reading?	I am currently reading Nevertell by Katherine Orton (see new releases section). I was hooked straight away when I read that it was a wintery tale and it had wolves in it!

Don't forget to send us your recommendations on Twitter - @minchreading Happy reading!
