

Dear Parents

We are asking for donations of 'walkman' type CD players that perhaps people have lying around but no longer use now that technology has moved on. We loaned out several sets during lockdown and only have one left. If you have one at home that you are willing to donate/ return, we would be very grateful if you could let us have it. We would make very good use of it!

We have some fabulous quality audio books on CDs which the children love to listen to during guided reading time. We'd love to reinstate this if possible.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at sky@minchscool.net.

Best wishes!

Ms McCarron
