

Dear Parent

As of January, we will no longer have Carol Wilson with us. She is taking on a new role at the Advisory Teaching Service. While this is an exciting career move for Carol, it clearly represents a big change for the school. Carol has been with us for many years - we are losing a much loved and respected colleague.

Over the last years Carol's expertise in all things SEND has been invaluable both for us in school and for yourselves. I would like to offer you my reassurance that we are welcoming another experienced SENCO from another of our DGAT schools, Amy Kingscote to lead our SEND. Two members of staff in school- Mrs Wilcox and Mrs Dawkes - are also stepping up to be -in-house assistant SENCO's. This will mean that you will be supported by a whole team for SEND.

Please get in touch if you would like to discuss this further. Carol has been working alongside our new SENCO, Amy, for several weeks now so a full handover has taken place.

Kind regards

Mr. Moss
